

MSc CONSTRUCTION PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Part-time 1.5 Years

Hybrid Course: Online and on campus in Mauritius

Start Date: September

The MSc in Construction Project Management is designed to develop the knowledge and skills of construction professionals in the context of contemporary construction projects. There is a focus upon construction project management knowledge areas including the planning and control methods within the project management process and you will extend your knowledge of technologies with regard to the resolution of new-build problems. The programme will provide you with opportunities to develop the personal, interpersonal and project-personnel skills that are relevant to your working environment and general interest in the context of international construction project management.

Course Outline

- Dissertation (triple module)
- Advanced Construction Technology
- Health and Safety Management
- Strategic Project Management
- Project Team and Leadership Development
- Risk and Value Management
- Project Planning, Control and Analysis

Entry Requirements

Applicants must possess an honours degree with 2:2 classification or higher in a construction or an engineering discipline that demonstrates an awareness of construction processes and procedures. International applicants are also required to provide evidence of English Language competence and an IELTS score of 6.0 (or equivalent)

Accredited by:

Association for Project Management
Chartered Institute of Building

For more information please contact UOM Enterprise on:

Tel: (230) 467 8925 / 26 | Email: contactus@uomenterprise.ac.mu

Website: www.uomenterprise.mu | www.lancashire.ac.uk | Facebook: UniLancashire in Mauritius